

COCKLES FARM
Moor to Sea!

Discovery Adventure Green Travel Trip: 2

Discover The Truly Glorious and Historic Tamar Valley: The Tamar Valley branch railway line to Gunnislake returning via Bere Alston, Weir Quay to Bere Ferrers.

A return trip along the glorious Tamar Valley railway branch line from Saltash to Gunnislake returning via Bere Alston, plus a walk to weir Quay and Bere Ferrers.

Walking or bicycles.

Luncheon venues & Picnicking spots en-route.

Suitable for children 5yo +

Duration

A full day

Itinerary

1. Take the train from Saltash Station over the world-famous Royal Albert Bridge (Brunel) to St. Budeaux (1 Stop). Change platforms to the Victoria Road station stop. Purchase return tickets to Gunnislake. Alternatively, cycle over the Tamar Bridge.
2. Catch the train and travel to Gunnislake returning to Bere Alston, (Calstock stop-over optional)
3. Walk/Cycle down to Weir Quay and on to the lovely riverside settlement of Bere Ferrers.
4. Extend the walk onto Maristow
5. Walk Cycle to Bere Ferrers railway station and catch the train back to St Budeaux and then to Saltash.

Food and Drink stops

The Olde Plough Inn, Bere Ferrers

The Boot Inn, Calstock
The Tamar Inn, Calstock

Map

Ordnance Survey Landranger 201

Tips.....

Check the tide times to get the full riverside experience. Places look even better with the tides in!
If this Discovery Adventure is too strenuous then take a Tamar River Trip from Plymouth Barbican.
Plymouth. See Discovery Trip 1 : The Tamar valley branch line to Gunnislake stopping at Calstock with walk to Cotehele House and Quay (National Trust)

Links

Tamar Valley Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty <http://www.tamarvalley.org.uk/explore/>

The Tamar Valley Line <https://greatscenicrailways.co.uk/stations/calstock/>

The Olde Plough Inn, Bere Ferrers <http://www.theoldeploughinn.co.uk/>